LAJK RESTAURANT – traditional values with a funky twist

LAJK RESTAURANT

BREAKFAST, LUNCH AND DINNER IN HISTORICAL SETTING

The name LAJK has an interesting background and really sums up the heart and soul of this gem of a Dubrovnik restaurant. It has a family feel, yes the letters LAJK are the first letters of the family that runs it, you almost feel like you've sat down at a good friend's house. LAJK is located on the cobbled Prijeko street in the heart of the Old City of Dubrovnik and offers diners a real Old City feel. There is something special about eating in this historical city, especially when you are dining al fresco. And even though Prijeko is a relatively busy side street off the Stradun the restaurant is in a quiet corner offers diners a tranquil experience. Using home-grown products and a combination of traditional recipes and modern twists the LAJK restaurant has relatively quickly grown to be one of the hotspots on the Dubrovnik eatery scene. The breakfasts are legendary. Believe it or not it isn't that easy to find a good breakfast in Dubrovnik, locals tend to make do with a cup of coffee and a that's about it, so with their extensive breakfast menu – from bruschette salmon to three eggs omelette – which includes a breakfast named after all the family members. Then lunch, or light lunch, has quirky named dishes that are once again testimony to the family touch - My husband's sandwich (Croatian beef neck, aged 21 day grilled, then baked with cheese & onions, served with a bouquet of seasonal salad, tomato carpaccio & gourmet sauce) and My lady's asparagus risotto (cream risotto with asparagus & fresh herbs) are two of our favourites. And with The Dubrovnik Times you can make your visit to LAJK even more special. Take a copy of The Dubrovnik Times with you to LAJK and you will receive a traditional Dubrovnik dessert free of charge. We have teamed up with this popular eatery this year to bring you deals and news. With a charming outside terrace on the ancient stone streets of the Old City, or in case or rain or even extreme heat there is an intimate inside seating area with air-conditioning. All in all LAJK restaurant is a hit and well worth a visit. In other words we LIKE LAJK.

Welcome to our beautiful city of Dubrovnik and the ninth edition of The Dubrovnik Times for this summer season, our twelfth year, making us the longest running English language newspaper in Croatia. Yes, the swallows are here, the sun is shining and Dubrovnik is glowing with the Adriatic glinting in the background. If you are here for only a few days then make the most of your trip – a few hints – walk the City Walls, go to the island of Lokrum, catch the cable car to the top of the Srđ Mountain and enjoy an "al fresco" coffee on the Stradun. Immerse yourself in the Dubrovnik lifestyle, the laid back slightly hedonistic way of looking at life. Here coffee is not something that is done on the run, there is no "coffee to go" only coffee to stay and stay.

Worte des herausgebers

Willkommen in unserer schönen Stadt Dubrovnik und der neunten Ausgabe der Dubrovnik Times für diese Sommersaison, unser zwölftes Jahr, macht uns zur am längsten laufenden englischsprachigen Zeitung in Kroatien. Ja, die Schwalben sind hier, die Sonne scheint und Dubrovnik erstrahlt mit dem Glitzern der Adria im Hintergrund. Wenn Sie nur einige Tage hier sind, versuchen Sie das bestmögliche aus Ihrer Reise zu machen. Dazu ein paar Tipps: Spazieren Sie auf der Stadtmauer, besuchen Sie die Insel Lokrum, Fahren Sie mit der Seilbahn auf den Berg Srđ und genießen Sie einen "al fresco" Kaffee auf dem Stradun. Tauchen Sie ein in den Dubrovniker Lifestyle, die entspannte, leicht hedonistische Lebenseinstellung. Hier ist Kaffee keine Angelegenheit die im Vorrübergehen erledigt wird, es gibt keinen "Kaffee zum Mitnehmen", nur Kaffee zum Hierbleiben und Verweilen.

SPEAK UP!

We would love to hear your feedback on Dubrovnik, photos, letters, e-mails, stories.

Croatia and South Korea to be connected all year round

Croatia will have all year round flights to South Korea starting this September. The airline Korean Air will operate flights between Zagreb and Seoul three times a week. A statement from the Zagreb Airport read "We are very proud to announce that from September 2018, Croatia and the Far East will be closer than ever. Korean Air, the largest air carrier from South Korea will connect Seoul and Zagreb three times a week year-round". The airport also made a pint of stating that this link to South Korea will be the third new airline that has been added to the schedule this year, after Aegean Airlines and Air Canada Rouge. It is believed that a 218-seat Airbus A330-200 will be used by Korean Air and that the actual link will be Seoul to Zagreb and then onto Zurich. This new airline, and especially this new destination, will certainly help to boost tourism figures in Croatia in the winter months.

Kroatien und Südkorea sollen ganzjährig miteinander verbunden werden

Kroatien wird ab September diesen Jahres ganzjährig Flüge nach Südkorea einführen. Die Fluggesellschaft Korean Air wird dreimal wöchentlich Flüge zwischen Zagreb und Seoul anbieten. Eine Stellungnahme des Zagreber Flughafens lautete: „Wir sind sehr stolz, ankündigen zu können, dass Kroatien und der Ferne Osten ab September 2018 näher als je zuvor sein werden. Die Korean Air, die größte Fluggesellschaft Südkoreas, wird Seoul und Zagreb das ganze Jahr über drei Mal pro Woche miteinander verbinden." Der Flughafen teilte außerdem mit, dass diese Verbindung nach Südkorea die dritte neue Fluggesellschaft sein wird, die in diesem Jahr in den Flugplan aufgenommen wurde, nach Aegean Airlines und Air Canada Rouge. Es wird angenommen, dass ein Korean Air-Airbus A330-200 mit 218 Sitzplätzen eingesetzt werden wird, und dass die tatsächliche Verbindung von Seoul nach Zagreb und dann nach Zürich gehen wird. Diese neue Airline, und vor allem diese neue Destination wird sicherlich dazu beitragen, die Tourismuszahlen in Kroatien in den Wintermonaten anzukurbeln.

Dubrovnik declared as the best destination by cruise ship visitors

Norwegian Cruise Lines conducted a survey during the first arrival of the Norwegian Spirit cruise ship, which was in Dubrovnik on April 17th with about 2,200 passengers on a trip from Valetta to Venice. On this occasion, Dubrovnik became a champion by being declared as the best destination, leaving Venice, Koper, Split, Corfu, Katakolon and Valletta behind. This is a regular survey of customer satisfaction through a questionnaire conducted by Norwegian Cruise Lines on each trip, and includes the rating of each destination according to several parameters: general tourist offer of destination, bus quality and excursion guides and shuttle service, cleanliness of destination and general impression.

Kreuzfahrtpassagiere erklären Dubrovnik zum besten Reiseziel

Im Zuge der erstmaligen Ankunft des Kreuzfahrtschiffs Norwegian Spirit, das am 17. April mit etwa 2.200 Passagieren auf dem Weg von Valletta nach Venedig in Dubrovnik Halt machte, führte Norwegian Cruise Line eine Befragung der Passagiere durch. Dabei ging Dubrovnik als Sieger hervor, wurde zum besten Reiseziel erklärt und lies Venedig, Koper, Korfu, Katakolon und Valletta hinter sich. So eine Befragung wird von Noerwegian Cruise Line auf jeder Fahrt durchgeführt. Mittels Fragebogen wird die Zufriedenheit der Passagiere erhoben und dabei auch jedes Reiseziel nach verschiedenen Parametern bewertet: Allgemeines Touristenangebot des Reiseziels, Busqualität, Reiseleiter und Shuttle Service, Sauberkeit des Reiseziels und allgemeiner Eindruck.

New Hollywood serial to be filmed in Dubrovnik

After the success of the filming of Game of Thrones, Star Wars and the upcoming release of Robin Hood, Dubrovnik could soon be the backdrop for a new Hollywood production. Dubrovnik has been a magnet for the movie industry for the past five years, mainly on the back of the HBO serial Game of Thrones which has filmed seven seasons in the city, and now the "Adriatic Hollywood" looks set to be back on the screen with a new serial. "Dubrovnik is open for co-operation with the film industry and we have currently creating a new set of regulations for filming in the city," said the Mayor of Dubrovnik, Mato Franković, to The Dubrovnik Times. "We are currently in talks with a young and successful film producer from Hollywood who last year won an Emmy Award who is interested in filming a serial in Dubrovnik in which the city would be backdrop," added Franković. However, when asked for the name of the future serial and producer the Mayor played his cards close to his chest and kept both a secret, at least for now.

Neue Hollywood Serie könnte bald in Dubrovnik gedreht werden

Nach den erfolgreichen Dreharbeiten zu Game of Thrones, Star Wars und dem bald veröffentlichten Robin Hood, könnte Dubrovnik bald wieder zur Kulisse einer neuen Hollywood-Produktion werden. In den letzten fünf Jahren wurde Dubrovnik zu einem regelrechten Magneten für die Filmindustrie, insbesondere aufgrund der HBO Serie Game of Thrones die sieben Staffeln in der Stadt gefilmt hat. Und nun sieht es so aus, als ob das „Adriatische Hollywood" mit einer neuen Serie auf die Leinwand zurückkehrt. "Dubrovnik ist bereit, mit der Filmindustrie zusammenzuarbeiten und wir arbeiten im Moment daran, neue Regelungen für Dreharbeiten in der Stadt zu entwerfen.", sagte der Bürgermeister von Dubrovnik, Mato Franković, zur Dubrovnik Times. "Im Moment führen wir Gespräche mit einem jungen und erfolgreichen Filmproduzenten aus Hollywood, der letztes Jahr einen Emmy gewonnen hat und eine Serie in Dubrovnik drehen möchte, in welcher die Stadt als Kulisse dienen soll.", fügte Franković hinzu. Jedoch hüllte sich der Bürgermeister in Schweigen, als er nach dem Namen der zukünftigen Serie und des Produzenten gefragt wurde und hielt beides geheim, zumindest vorerst.

Dubrovnik beach raises Blue Flag for seventeenth time

The Blue Flag is once again flying over the beach of the Hotel Valamar Dubrovnik President. In a ceremony held today the Blue Flag was raised for the 17th time. The Blue Flag is an internationally recognised ecological acknowledgment for the cleanliness beaches. This year the flag was raised by two loyal guests to the hotel, the Scottish couple Frances and Robert Craig, who have been visiting for more than twenty years. The beach of the Hotel Valamar Dubrovnik President once again this year fulfilled the demanding criteria that are prerequisites for this honourable acknowledgment, which are related to the complete beach arrangement and the security conditions at sea and on the beach itself. The blue flag on this beach has been raised since 2002.

Der Strand von Dubrovnik erhebt zum siebzehnten Mal die Blaue Flagge

Die Blaue Flagge weht wieder über dem Strand des Hotels Valamar Dubrovnik President. Während der Zeremonie, die heute stattfand, wurde die Blaue Flagge zum 17. Mal gehisst. Die Blaue Flagge ist eine international anerkannte ökologische Anerkennung für die Sauberkeit der Strände. In diesem Jahr wurde die Flagge von zwei treuen Gästen des Hotels gehisst, dem schottischen Paar Frances und Robert Craig, die seit mehr als zwanzig Jahren zu Besuch bekommen. Der Strand des Hotels Valamar Dubrovnik President hat auch in diesem Jahr die anspruchsvollen Kriterien, die die Voraussetzung für diese ehrenvolle Anerkennung sind und die sich auf die komplette Strandgestaltung und die Sicherheitsbedingungen auf dem Meer und am Strand beziehen, erfüllt. Die blaue Flagge wird an diesem Strand seit 2002 gehisst.

GAME OF THRONES ON THE WALLS

THE POPULAR HBO SERIAL GAME OF THRONES HAS BEEN USING DUBROVNIK AS A LOCATION FOR THE PAST FIVE SEASONS. THE DUBROVNIK CITY WALLS, AT IN PARTICULAR THE MINCETA FORTRESS, HAVE FEATURED IN THE SERIAL MANY TIMES. FANS OF GOT CLIMB TO THE TOP OF THE FORTRESS AND TAKE SELFIES IN THE EXACT SAME POSITION AS THEIR HEROES ACTED FAMOUS SCENES. MINCETA FORTRESS IS THE HIGHEST POINT OF THE CITY WALLS; THE TOWER WAS COMPLETED IN 1464 BY ARCHITECT AND SCULPTOR JURAJ DALMATINAC. THE TOWER'S NAME DERIVES FROM THE NAME OF THE MENCETIC FAMILY, WHO OWNED THE GROUND UPON WHICH THE TOWER WAS BUILT.

Constructed between the 12th to 17th centuries the Dubrovnik City Walls are the most visited attraction in Croatia, with almost 1 million people walking the 2 kilometres last year. Rising up to 25 metres and up to 6 metres thick in places the spectacular walls represent many of the values of the city. They were built to look impressive, imposing and undefeatable, that plan worked. This defensive system, one of the most beautiful and solid fortress systems on the Mediterranean, is composed of a range of forts, bastions, casemates, towers and freestanding fortresses. With panoramic views over the terracotta roofs of the Old City from the north walls and endless vistas of the Adriatic Sea from the south side you'll fill your holiday album several times over. There are three entrances onto the walls, from the Stradun, from the Ploce Gate and the St. Ivan Fortress. The flow of visitors is anti-clockwise, be careful, and you can do a full circle or half a circle if you want.

Carpe

If you only have one day to spend in Dubrovnik then you are going to need a constructive plan. Although the Old City is a car-free, self-contained entity and is relatively easy to navigate around you are still going to need some hot tips to maximise your stay

Here are a few recommendations on our "must see" list. The best way to familiarise yourself with the city is by getting a bird's eye view. Climb 432 metres over Dubrovnik with a ride on the cable car. The views are to die for, why not have a coffee in the Panorama Restaurant which offers aerial panoramas, it's all in the name. After an hour on the Srd Mountain you'll need a swim, one of the most iconic beaches in Dubrovnik is the Banje Beach. You can either rent a sun bed or go to the public side of the beach, to the east, and roll out your towel for free. Time for lunch and the Old City offers over 100 restaurants, but beware there are many tourist traps, our choices are Kopun (home of capons), Proto (for an upmarket fish meal), Nista (vegetarian), Horizont (great service) or Kamenica (fresh fish and reasonable). After lunch why not catch some Dubrovnik culture, there are many museums in the Old City but you only have a day so the Rectors Palace will give you a brief insight into the power of the former Republic of Dubrovnik. Have you got time to walk the city walls, probably not, but you could walk half of them. For a seaside view get on at the Pile Gate and for an over the roof tops view get on at the Ploce Gate, unfortunately the price is the same if you walk a half circle or full. If you don't fancy walking anymore then relax with a long drink on the Stradun, the main street that runs like an arrow through the heart of Dubrovnik. Try cafe bar Cele or the close by La Bodega for a real "live like a local," feel.

tip!
Save time and money with the Dubrovnik City Card.

Dubrovnik City Card

Save time and money on your daytrip to Dubrovnik with the one-day Dubrovnik City Card. The card offers you entrance into all of the city's museums, city walls, bus travel and discount in many stores and restaurants. You can but the card at over 50 outlets throughout the city, including hotels, restaurants and travel agencies. We would suggest buying at the Dubrovnik Tourist Board office on Pile just by the main entrance to the Old City. We would suggest buying at the Dubrovnik Tourist Board office on Pile just by the main entrance to the Old City. A one-day card costs 200 Kunas but if you buy online you will receive a discount.

Cable car - Ride to the sky in three minutes

The Dubrovnik cable car offers 360 degree views that will leave you breathless, almost as breathless as if you had walked to the top of the 432 metres high Srd Mountain. The ride lasts around three minutes and tickets can be bought at the lower station of the cable car, an adult return ticket costs 150 Kunas and 60 Kunas for children. At the top is an observation deck, a restaurant and souvenir shops. You can also catch buggy ride over the countryside if you are feeling adventurous, it's fun and dirty! In May the cable car runs from 9am to 9pm and leaves every ten minutes. Get to the back of the car for the best views over Dubrovnik as you climb the mountain.

The Banje Beach is great fun for all the family although be careful as the Adriatic gets deep relatively quickly!

Der Banje Strand ist ein großer Spaß für die ganze Familie, auch wenn die Adria hier relativ schnell tief wird!

Diem!

Wenn Sie nur einen Tag in Dubrovnik verbringen möchten, brauchen Sie einen konstruktiven Plan. Obwohl die Altstadt eine autofreie, in sich geschlossene Einheit ist, und relativ einfach aufgebaut zu sein scheint, benötigen Sie dennoch ein paar heiße Tipps, um Ihren Aufenthalt maximal auszukosten tipp!

Sparen Sie Zeit und Geld mit der eintägigen Dubrovnik City Card.

Hier sind ein paar Empfehlungen von unserer Liste „Das muss man gesehen haben".

Der beste Weg, sich mit der Stadt vertraut zu machen, ist diese aus der Vogelperspektive zu genießen. Begeben Sie sich 432 Meter hoch über Dubrovnik mit einer Seilbahnfahrt. Die Aussicht ist einfach himmlisch. Warum nicht einen Kaffee im Panoramarestaurant mit Panoramaaussicht – wie der Name schon besagt, genießen. Nach einer Stunde auf dem Berg Srđ müssen Sie unbedingt an einem der schönsten Strände in Dubrovnik, dem so genannten Strand Banje, schwimmen gehen. Sie können entweder eine Sonnenliege anmieten oder die öffentliche Seite des Strandes im Osten wählen und Ihr Handtuch dort kostenlos ausbreiten. Zeit zum Mittagessen! Die Altstadt bietet Ihnen über 100 Restaurants, aber Vorsicht! Es gibt haufenweise Touristenfallen! Unsere Empfehlungen sind Kopun (Heimat der Kapaunen), Proto (gehobene Fischgerichte), Nista (vegetarisch), Horizont (toller Service) oder Kamenica (frischer Fisch zu angemessenen Preisen). Nach dem Mittagessen können Sie die Kultur Dubrovniks entdecken. Es gibt viele Museen in der Altstadt, Sie haben aber nur einen Tag Zeit. Der Fürstenpalast gibt Ihnen einen kurzen Einblick in die Macht der ehemaligen Republik Ragusa.

Haben Sie Zeit, die Stadtmauer zu begehen? Wahrscheinlich nicht, aber Sie könnten immerhin die Hälfte davon sehen. Für einen Blick vom Meer aus gehen Sie zum Tor Pile und für einen Blick über die Stadtdächer zum Ausblickspunkt Ploče. Leider ist der Eintrittspreis gleich, ganz egal, ob Sie die ganze Strecke oder nur die Hälfte besichtigen.

Wenn Sie nicht mehr laufen möchten, entspannen Sie sich am besten bei einem Longdrink an der Hauptstraße Stradun, die wie ein Pfeil durch das Herz Dubrovniks verläuft. Probieren Sie das Angebot der Café Bar Cele oder die nahe gelegene La Bodega Bar aus, um das echte „Leben wie ein Einheimischer" mitzuerleben.

Dubrovnik City Card

Sparen Sie Zeit und Geld bei Ihrem Tagesausflug nach Dubrovnik mit der eintägigen Ausflugskarte Dubrovnik City Card .

Die eintägige Ausflugskarte gewährt Ihnen den Eintritt in alle Museen der Stadt, sowie zu den alten Stadtmauern, Busreisen und Ermäßigungen in vielen Geschäften und Restaurants. Sie können die eintägige Karte an über 50 Verkaufsstellen in der ganzen Stadt besorgen, wie beispielsweise in Hotels, Restaurants und Reisebüros. Wir schlagen Ihnen das Fremdenverkehrsamt in Pile am Haupteingang der Altstadt vor, wenn Sie eine solche Karte kaufen möchten. Eine Tageskarte kostet 200 Kuna, aber wenn Sie dieseonline kaufen, erhalten Sie einen Rabatt.

Seilbahnfahrt - In drei Minuten bis in den Himmel

Die Seilbahn in Dubrovnik bietet eine himmlische 360-Grad-Aussicht, die Ihnen den Atem rauben wird, fast so genauso, als ob Sie auf den Gipfel des 432 Meter hohen Bergs Srđ hätten selbst laufen müssen. Die Fahrt dauert etwa drei Minuten.

Tickets können Sie an der Talstation der Seilbahn kaufen. Eine Hin- und Rückfahrkarte für Erwachsene kostet 150 Kuna und 60 Kuna für Kinder. An der Spitze befindet sich eine Aussichtsplattform, ein Restaurant und mehrere Souvenirläden. Wenn Sie Lust auf Abenteuer haben, können Sie auch quer über die Landschaft Buggy fahren! Es ist lustig und dreckig! Ab Mai fährt die Seilbahn von 9 bis 21 Uhr alle 10 Minuten ab. Steigen Sie in den hinteren Teil des Wagens ein und genießen Sie die beste Aussicht über ganz Dubrovnik.

Get back to nature o

Whilst the beaches of Dubrovnik are crowded through the summer months there is always room to roll out your towel on Lokrum. Portoč is the largest quay on the island. Over time, it has been adapted and developed and here today is where the boats of the Lokrum Reserve bring visitors to the island from the Old City harbour. Protected from rough seas and with rocks exposed to the sun but also with a cool shade, Portoč is an attractive Dubrovnik seashore. The southern part of the island touches the wide open sea. Swimming in the clear and warm seas and sunbathing on the rocks, the stone slabs, are pleasures that are not easily forgotten. Those who are not lovers of the open sea, especially parents with small children, often swim in the Dead Sea, a salt lake, which is connected and refreshed with the living water of the sea. Lokrum is not only a swimmers paradise and an island full of interesting cultural and historical monuments. In fact the entire island is a wonderful promenade which is protected by UNESCO.

Can you tell me three interesting facts about the Republic of Dubrovnik?
Dubrovnik, and especially the Republic of Dubrovnik, is an extremely rich city in terms of history and traditions. It isn't easy juts to pick three, so I will note the first three that come to mind. Firstly, the Republic of Dubrovnik was the first state in the world to abolish slavery; this was brought into law in the 15th century. Then the Republic had one of the largest maritime fleets in medieval times, and certainly one of the biggest merchant navies. And finally on a financial basis the GDP per capita was one of the highest in the world.

What in your opinion is the most significant landmark?
For sure that must be the Minceta Fortress. This fortress is the highest part of the Old City Wall fortifications and commands excellent views over the entire city. Not only does it look impressive but it was also one of, it not the, most important part of the defensive system, I can only imagine how it must have appeared in ancient times. In the 15th century it was upgraded and became even more dominating.

Können Sie mir drei interessante Fakten über die Republik Ragusa erzählen?
Dubrovnik, und besonders die Republik Ragusa, ist eine in Bezug auf Geschichte und Tradition sehr reiche Stadt. Es ist nicht leicht drei Fakten hervorzuheben, also nenne ich die ersten drei, die mir in den Sinn kommen. Erstens war die Republik Ragusa (kroatisch: Dubrovačka republika) der erste Staat der Welt, der die Sklaverei abgeschafft hat. Dieses Gesetz wurde im 15. Jahrhundert verabschiedet. Dann hatte die Republik eine der größten Seeflotten im Mittelalter und sicherlich eine der größten Handelsmarinen. Und schließlich war das BIP auf finanzieller Basis eines der höchsten der Welt.

Was ist Ihrer Meinung nach das bedeutendste Wahrzeichen der Stadt?
Sicherlich muss das die Minceta Festung sein. Diese Festung ist der höchste Teil der Festungsanlage der alten Stadtmauer und bietet eine hervorragende Aussicht über die gesamte Stadt. Es sieht hier nicht nur beeindruckend aus, der Ort war auch einer der wichtigsten Verteidigungspunkte. Ich kann mir nur vorstellen, wie all das in der Antike entstanden sein muss. Im 15. Jahrhundert wurde die Anlage aufgewertet und dominierte ab da an noch mehr.

BONUS QUESTION

What Game of Thrones locations outside the Old City are worth visiting?

While most of the series was shot in or around the Old City there are some interesting locations outside the city limits. The oldest arboretum in Europe, the Trsteno Arboretum is a must see. Then the island of Lokrum with its beautiful botanical garden and finally the destroyed Hotel Belvedere close to St. Jakov beach, these were all important filming locations.

Welche Kulissen von Game of Thrones, außer der Altstadt, sind einen Besuch wert?

Während die meisten Serien in oder um die Altstadt herum gedreht wurden, gibt es in Game of Thrones einige interessante Orte außerhalb der Stadtgrenzen. Das älteste Arboretum Europas, das Trsteno Arboretum, ist ein Muss. Dann halte ich die Insel Lokrum mit ihrem wunderschönen botanischen Garten und schließlich die Ruinen des Hotels Belvedere in der Nähe vom Strand des Hl. Jakov für zwei der wichtigsten Drehorte.

INTERVIEW - CHA

South

STUNN

Holiday photos…holiday photos…holiday photos…WOW!! Surfing through the #Dubrovnik section of Instagram we are normally greeted with hundreds of photos of cocktails, cats and canoes but once in a while something jumps out and whacks us over the head like a creative hammer. These amazing oil paintings of Dubrovnik were created by Changseok Lim from South Korea. We just love his images of Dubrovnik and decided to catch up with him and find out what his inspirations were

When did you travel to Dubrovnik and what were your first impressions of the city?

I traveled to Czech, Croatia, Hungary and Austria in October 2017 and my first impression of Dubrovnik is that it was so 'bright'. We came to Dubrovnik after visiting Prague where we stayed for a week. Dubrovnik was a bright and shiny city unlike Prague. We stayed in Dubrovnik for a couple of days. The sunset I watched from the rampart was very impressive, and alleys I walked along were so interesting and amusing. Stores were new to us, and people working there look different. We however found a lot of us in them. I have happy memories of Placa Street (Stradun) where I ran to buy my companions ice creams before they melted.

ANGSEOK LIM

n Korean artist creates
NING DUBROVNIK ART

How did you decide which parts of Dubrovnik to paint and how long did it take to create your art?
The side streets in Dubrovnik felt unfamiliar on the one hand and friendly on the other. Walking in the alleys I encountered interesting or impressing scenes, and I would then draw sketches with a pen. Some drawings were completed on the spot, and others were painted in oils being infused with inspiration from the scenes after coming back to Korea. It took roughly a week to a month to finish my painting depending on the picture.

Apart from on Instagram, or online, do you display your art anywhere else?
I upload my works mainly onto Instagram, and otherwise give exhibitions at galleries. I have held private and group exhibitions, about 20 to 25 times, respectively, most of which were held in Korea, although some were held in Beijing and Hong Kong. In the years to come I would like to have many exhibitions abroad as well as in Korea.

What memories will you take with you from Dubrovnik?
What I remember most about Dubrovnik is a feeling of warmth. I still remember the streets shining brightly and buildings giving off delicate hues and will never forget the impression which the side streets alleys had on me and the sunset which I watched walking around the Dubrovnik City Walls.

What is the process that you go through to create your art? Do you take a photo and then use that or do you sit in position until you finish?
It is usually the inspiration from objects/subjects that leads me to the canvas. Firstly, I organize the feelings and emotions in my head and then make a sketch composing my painting. Sometimes I complete paintings on the spot and sometimes I don't due to the lack of time. In the case that I bring unfinished works, I take photos of scenes at times to complete them later. I think it is very important that a painting has a flow of emotion on the canvas

MAPPED OUT

There is no need to follow your nose around Dubrovnik anymore, follow The Dubrovnik Times and get to your destination

AUTHOR MARK THOMAS

The Old City of Dubrovnik is a self-contained city, a city surrounded by ancient stone walls. The Stradun, the main street, runs through the centre of the city like an arrow. It is one of the busiest streets and other side streets run parallel with it. It runs from East to West and is around 300 metres in length. There entrances into the Old City, one at the East – Ploce Gate, one at the West – Pile Gate and to the North – Buza Gate. The busiest is Pile Gate where all the buses arrive, if you are coming by car then the Buza Gate is the easiest...but there are lots of steps. The Stradun is the lowest point in the whole city, everything leads up from this street.

ABGEBILDET

In Dubrovnik müssen Sie nicht mehr einfach der Nase nachgehen, folgen Sie der Dubrovnik Times, um an Ihr Ziel zu gelangen.

Die Altstadt von Dubrovnik ist eine in sich geschlossene Stadt, die von alten Steinmauern umgeben ist. Der Stradun, die Hauptstraße, verläuft wie ein Pfeil durch das Stadtzentrum. Er ist eine der belebtesten Straßen, mit einigen parallel dazu verlaufenden Seitenstraßen. Er verläuft von Osten nach Westen und ist etwa 300 Meter lang. Es gibt drei Eingänge in die Altstadt, einen im Osten – das Ploče-Tor, einen im Westen – das Pile-Tor und das Buza-Tor im Norden. Am meisten los ist beim Pile-Tor, bei dem alle Busse ankommen. Wenn Sie mit dem Auto anreisen, ist das Buza-Tor die einfachste Wahl.... jedoch gibt es hier sehr viele Stufen. Der Stradun ist der tiefstgelegenste Punkt in der gesamten Stadt, von dieser Straße aus geht es stets nach oben.

Birth of a nation

The Republic of Ragusa was a maritime republic centred on the city of Dubrovnik that existed from 1358 to 1808. It reached its commercial peak in the 15th and the 16th centuries, before being conquered by Napoleon's French Empire and formally annexed by the Napoleonic Kingdom of Italy in 1808. It had a population of about 30,000 people, out of whom 5,000 lived within the city walls. Its motto was "Non bene pro toto libertas venditur auro", which translated from Latin means "Liberty is not well sold for all the gold"

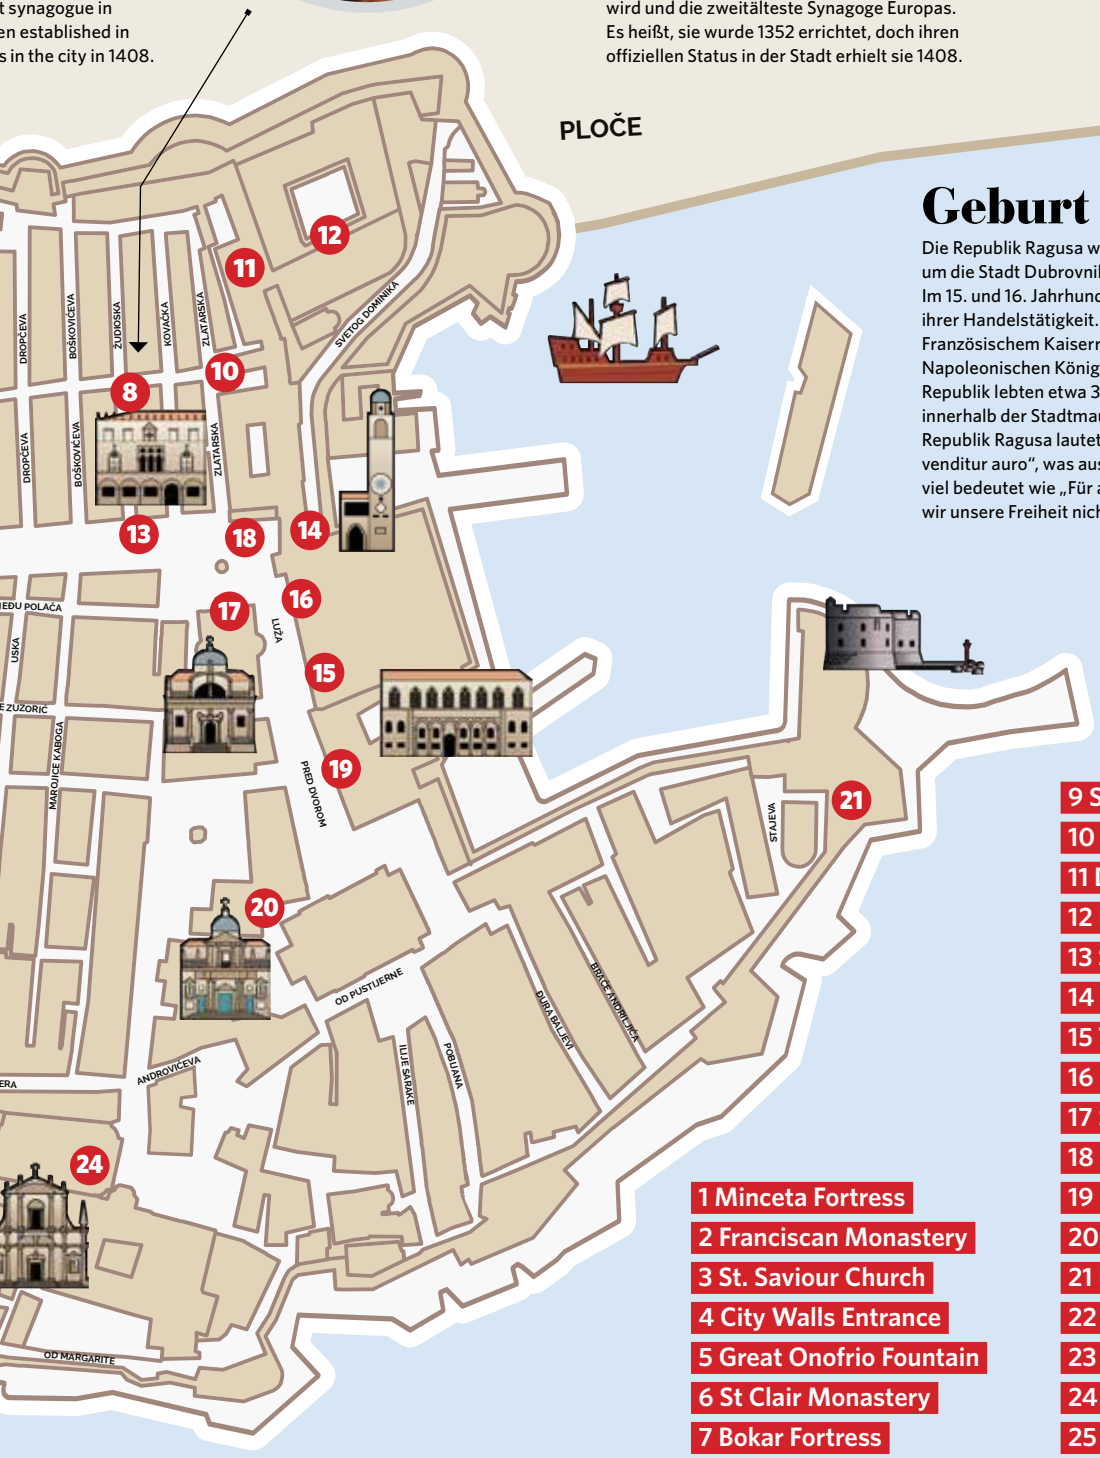
Die Dubrovniker Synagoge ist die älteste sephardische Synagoge der Welt, die noch genutzt wird und die zweitälteste Synagoge Europas. Es heißt, sie wurde 1352 errichtet, doch ihren offiziellen Status in der Stadt erhielt sie 1408.



Geburt einer Nation

Die Republik Ragusa war eine maritime Republik rund um die Stadt Dubrovnik, die von 1358 bis 1808 bestand. Im 15. und 16. Jahrhundert erreichte sie die Blütezeit ihrer Handelstätigkeit. 1808 wurde sie von Napoleons Französischem Kaiserreich erobert und formell dem Napoleonischen Königreich Italien einverleibt. In der Republik lebten etwa 30.000 Menschen, davon 5.000 innerhalb der Stadtmauern. Der Wahlspruch der Republik Ragusa lautete „Non bene pro toto libertas venditur auro", was aus dem Lateinischen übersetzt so viel bedeutet wie „Für alles Gold dieser Welt werden wir unsere Freiheit nicht verkaufen".

Taj Mahal

Every week The Dubrovnik Times goes to new levels for your pleasure. This time it's all about culinary pleasure. We have scoured the menus of Dubrovnik to bring you our favourites. And not only did we just research the menus we have gone that extra step and tasted the food in advance for you...its hard work but someone has to do it. This week I visited an old friend in Hotel Lero – Taj Mahal

AUTHOR MARK THOMAS

Taj Mahal is somewhat of an institution in Dubrovnik. Bosnian cuisine as you have never tasted before, in fact the best Bosnian cuisine in the whole city. The story of Taj Mahal started back in 2004 with a restaurant in the heart of the historic Old City of Dubrovnik, and in 2013 the story took on a new chapter with the opening of a second restaurant in the Hotel Lero. In their own words "With it, we finally got the space and freedom to present our guests what Bosnian cuisine is really about." And boy is it great. The menu is so attractive and quite frankly yummy that the hardest thing is to know what to go for. Peppers with thick cream kaymak and cheese and chilly filled rolls seemed a good place to start. And yes, it was a great choice. And on the hot appetisers why not try the rolls filled with cheese and ground veal...really fantastic. The Taj Mahal in Hotel Lero has a spacious outside terrace and a very interesting and authentic interior with traditional Bosnian decorations. And the service is fast and professional, which is handy because the menu might seem unusual to some people. But the waiters are more than happy to "hold your hand" and lead you through the various choices. For the main course try the Lamb Krzamta (roasted lamb chops and vegetables) or the Orka with veal (veal served with okra, tomatoes and garlic) or even the roasted veal shank served with roasted vegetables. To be honest I could recommend half of the menu (and I have probably tried more than half of the menu). They cook and prepare with a real passion for food and that shines through with every dish. Drop by to Taj Mahal in Hotel Lero for lunch or dinner and feel the real taste of Bosnian cuisine at its finest.

KORČULA

What to see... / Sehenswürdigkeiten

Old city of Korcula - The old city is surrounded by walls, and the streets are arranged in a herring-bone pattern allowing free circulation of air but protecting against strong winds. Korcula is tightly built on a promontory that guards the narrow sound between the island and the mainland. Building outside the walls was forbidden until the 18th century, and the wooden drawbridge was only replaced in 1863.

Altstadt von Korčula – Die Altstadt ist umgeben von Mauern und ihre Straßen sind im Fischgrätmuster angeordnet, wodurch ein freier Luftstrom ermöglicht und gleichzeitig Schutz vor starken Winden geboten wird. Korčula ist eng auf einem Landstrich gebaut, der in den Korčula-Kanal hinausragt. Bis zum 18. Jahrhundert war es verboten, außerhalb der Mauern zu bauen. Die ursprüngliche, hölzerne Zugbrücke wurde erst 1863 ersetzt.
